Mrs. Margaret Ginn

Mrs. Margaret Ginn, wife of Mr. William Ginn, died yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at her home in Forest avenue, after a protracted illness, aged 64. She is survived by her husband and three sons and one daughter.

Funeral tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the house with services by Rev. Clark.

Water Pipe Bursted

A two-inch water pipe that supplies the elevator at Briebois' White Palace Furniture Store, in West Second street, bursted this morning and came near flooding the entire cellar floor. Everything was frozen and it was nearly an hour before workmen succeeded in shutting off the water from the large main in the street.

Spilled Out

Yesterday afternoon Mr. John McAuliffe and Mr. Riley McGlone had a narrow escape from serious injury. They were returning from Mrs. Short's funeral and in descending the steep grade this side of Hanley's store in West Third street the horse frightened at boys coasting in the street, upset the buggy, pulled the shafts loose from the vehicle and ran off. Mr. McAuliffe was considerably bruised about the face and body. Mr. McGlone was fortunate in escaping without a scratch. Coasting on the public thoroughfare should be prevented by the city authorities as it is a menace and dangerous to farmers coming to town in buggies and wagons.

LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY

He was born September 20th, 1860. He is survived by his widow and three children.

He was a brother of Squire William H. Hook.

Hattie M. Crowell qualified as Guardian of Christine W. Crowell, with John L. Chamberlain as surety on bond.

Small Affair

Yesterday morning about 5 o'clock an alarm from box 36 called the Fire Department to Market street. The incipient fire was located in Seeley & Slack's barber shop. A defective flue set fire to the wainscoting, which was extinguished with the chemical apparatus. Messrs. Seeley & Slack were fully insured.

Long Ago

Seventy-three years ago, 1839, the corner-stone of the First Baptist Church building, a small affair, was laid. In 1886 the same stone was re-laid in the beautiful Church edifice that now adorns the site on the West side of Market, between Third and Fourth streets. Very few of the members that worshiped in the first Church building now remain.

LINENS OF LUXURY

There's more than money-saving in our linen's; there's luxury in the quality and luxury in the choosing, too. An unprecedented stock in bigness, quality and price.

TABLE LINENS

FOR $1—Naturally a good table damask is expected at this price, but none of such goodness and beauty as this handsome snow white 8a in Damask. Twelve exquisite patterns, seventy-two inches wide.

FOR 50c—A small price to pay for all-linen Damask. One instantly thinks of this quality and narrow width, but we show a substantial Damask, within an inch of being two yards wide; good, solid, heavy.

Unusual values also at 75c, $1.19, $1% up to $3% yard.

NAPKINS

A half dozen items must hint of a half hundred. For a $1.98 a dozen grass-bleached, German drill Napkins, twenty-two inches square—the sort that gives years of service. Dew-bleached Napkins, twenty-two inches square, a quality that will make friends and buyers at once; they are $2% a dozen. At $1 a dozen, heavy, well-made bleached double Damask Napkins from Ireland, with plenty of patterns you will like, twenty-two inches square. They're the kind you'd expect to pay $1.50 for.

CAKES and CRACKERS

Newest Baseball Puzzle

The inevitable "dope" fend of baseball bobbed up with a queer question, one that on its face, sounds ridiculous, but which has a basis in fact after all. He asks:

"Granting he has the ability, is it possible for a pitcher to strike out 28 men in a nine-inning game?"

It is possible. Walter Johnson's performance last year probably gave rise to the question and at the same time called for the answer. In a certain game he struck out Johnson's catcher and failed to stop the runner from getting a strike out credit for a strike though the man was not struck out every man that has ended with 28 strike-outs.

Medicine Used in Rural Districts

Over 35% of the population of the United States are said to live in rural districts remote from physicians or drug stores and they are obliged to depend upon proprietary medicines to a very great extent.

To the women in these homes, such standard remedies as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound comes as a boon and a blessing.

For nearly forty years this splendid medicine, compounded from roots and herbs, has been relieving the women of this country from the worst forms of female illness. Merit alone could have stood such a test.

Hay's Hair Health the Favorite

Refined Women Give This Invigorating Hair Tonic the Preference

When a woman buys a Hair Restorer she is particular to get something just right. She wants a preparation that is safe and pleasing, and she doesn't want people to think she's dyeing her hair.

HAY'S HAIR HEALTH cleans up and invigorates the scalp and encourages new hairs to grow. Brings back the NATURAL COLOR to your hair, makes it soft and lustrous—same as when you were young. Leaves no stain on skin and nobody can tell you are using it.

Mrs. Fred Gompert of 223 W. 148th St., New York City, writes us:

"About six months ago I had a bald spot on the very top of my head as big as the palm of my hand. In about seven weeks' time, using HAY'S HAIR HEALTH continuously, new hairs started to grow. They are getting just as long and are the same color as the rest of my hair. I shall never give up using it."

You can get it at any druggist's for 50c or $1 per bottle or from the Philo Spec. Co. Newark, N. J.

THREE FOURTHS

Of Jury May Return Verdict Under New Constitution of Ohio

"The right of trial by Jury shall be inviolate, but the General Assembly may authorize that in civil cases a verdict may be rendered by the concurrence of not less than three-fourths of a Jury."

This proposal offered by Delegate Ellison of Athens county, and marked No. 54, was the first to be passed by the Constitutional Convention since it began its session the first week in January. It was approved after a day of debate, pronounced of lofty tone, by a vote of 93 to 11.

It means, if adopted by the people, that hereafter it will take four men to hang a Jury in a civil case instead of one, as at present, for, under this rule, nine Jurors may return a verdict. Just as decisively the convention voted down amendments seeking to apply the same rule to criminal cases.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN

Lincoln's Story of His Life

Of special interest at this moment is the brief sketch of Abraham Lincoln's life which he furnished for publication when he was pitted against Stephen A. Douglas for senator of Illinois in runs as follows:

"I was born February 12, 1809, in Hardin county, Ky. My parents were both born in Virginia of undistinguished families—second families perhaps I should say. My mother, who died in my tenth year, was of a family of the name of Hanks, some of whom now reside in Adams, and others in Macon county, Ill. My paternal grandfather, Abraham Lincoln, emigrated from Rockingham county, Va., to Kentucky about 1781 or 1782, where, a year or two later, he was killed by Indians, not in battle, but by stealth, when he was laboring to open a farm in the forest. His ancestors, who were Quakers, went to Virginia from Berks county, Pa. An effort to identify them with the New England family of the same name ended in nothing more definite than a similarity of Christian names in both families, such as Enoch, Levi, Mordecai, Solomon, Abraham and the like.

"My father at the death of his father was but 6 years of age, and he grew up literally without education. He removed from Kentucky to what is now Spencer county, Ind., in my eighth year. We reached our new home about the time the state came into the Union. It was a wild region, with many bears and other game animals still in the woods. There I grew up. There were some schools, so-called, but no qualification was ever required for a teacher beyond reading, writing and ciphering to the rule of three. If a straggler supposed to understand Latin happened to sojourn in the neighborhood he was looked upon as a wizard. There was absolutely nothing to excite ambition for education.

"Of course when I came of age I did not know much. Still, somehow, I could read, write and cipher to the rule of three; but that was all. I have not been to school since. The little advance I now have upon this store of education I have picked up from time to time under the pressure of necessity.

"I was raised to farm work, which I continued till I was 22. At 21 I came to Illinois and passed the first year in Macon county. Then I got to New Salem, at that time in Sangamon, now Menard county, where I remained a year as a sort of clerk in a store. Then came the Black Hawk war, and I was elected a captain of volunteers, a success which gave me more pleasure than any I have had since. I went through the campaign, was elected, ran for the legislature the same year (1832) and was beaten—the only time I have ever been beaten by the people. The next and three succeeding biennial elections I was elected to the legislature. I was not a candidate afterward. During this legislative period I had studied law, and removed to Springfield to practice it.

"In 1846 I was once elected to the lower house of congress. Was not a candidate for reelection. From 1849 to 1854, both inclusive, practiced law more assiduously than ever before. Always a Whig in politics and generally on the Whig electoral ticket, making active canvasses. I was losing interest in politics when the repeal of the Missouri compromise aroused me again. What I have done since then is pretty well known.

"If any personal description of me is thought desirable, it may be said I am in height six feet four inches nearly, lean in flesh, weighing on an average 180 pounds; dark complexion, with coarse black hair and gray eyes. No other marks or brands recollect.

"Yours very truly,

"A. LINCOLN."

This was written a couple of years before he ran the first time for president. "The rest," as the phrase is, "is history." Though Douglas beat him for senator, the popular vote of the state was with him, as the legislative returns showed, namely, for Lincoln 126,048, for Douglas 121,940. In his first campaign for the presidency Lincoln received 180 of the 303 electoral votes, and had a plurality of 491,295 of the popular vote in a total of 4,608,193. In his second campaign he received 212 electoral votes out of 233, leaving McClellan only 21, and he had a clear majority of 411,428 in the popular vote. Thus, as in the tribute of London Punch, by Tom Taylor, the dramatist, when the assassin's bullet had laid him low, his course and conduct of the war had been vindicated:

So he grew up, a destined work to do, And lived to do it; four long suffering years Ill fate, ill feeling, ill report lived through, And then he heard the hisses change to cheers.

His work was done, but he was cut off in his hour of triumph.

EXPERIENCE NEW TO LINCOLN

But He Had to Admit That One Time He Got the Worst of It in a Horse Trade.

FRIEND, a prominent Illinois judge, and Lincoln were bantering each other as to their knowledge of horses.

"Tell you what, judge," Lincoln quoted himself as saying, "I'll test this thing with a real horse trade. I'll go it blind, too. Each of us must go, now, and bring his horse; and we are to swap even. If either of us refuse the exchange, he must forfeit $25."

"The judge agreed. A crowd assembled while we sought the horses. By and by the judge arrived with his—the boniest, most swaybacked, four-legged, galled jade, blind in both eyes, that I ever saw. I followed, with the carpenter's horse I'd relied on. Everybody roared, but I knew the joke was on me.

"Judge," I told him, "I'll stand by the bargain—but it's the first time I've ever got the worst of it in a horse trade."

AFTER GRIP

How Strength May Be Recovered

So many people are asking how to recover their strength after the grip that we are publishing this information for their benefit.

After grip, pleurisy, pneumonia or any exhausting illness what you need is new strength and better blood.

The most certain way to get this is by using our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil, called Vinol. It positively does create strength, make the blood rich, sharpen the appetite and increase vitality.

Mrs. Hattie Elms of Queensbury, N. Y., says: "Last spring I had a hard case of la grippe and was very slow about getting over it. I was almost discouraged. Vinol was recommended to me and I began using it. Now it has done me so much good that I must tell you about it, for I have regained my strength and appetite and feel well again."

Try Vinol with the certainty that if it does not benefit you we will give back your money. John C. Pecor, Druggist, Maysville, Ky.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube.
When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound in your ears, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

PRESIDENT TAFT

Will Make Important Lincoln Day
Speech in New York

President Taft will make before the Republican Club of New York, at its Lincoln Day banquet Monday evening, one of the most important speeches since he assumed the Presidency.

It is said the President's address would be distinctly of a political character, and would be a keynote speech along the lines of those he made last week at Cleveland and Columbus.
